

Yopp 4-2 Shorten and Tighten — Get to the Point

1. In order to expedite the delivery, the company will add a third delivery truck for its routes on Monday.
2. We will have pizza for dinner whether or not you choose to come.
3. She is presently employed as the assistant to the president, but she expects to make a decision whether or not to change jobs by the end of the year.
4. If they are willing to pay the difference between the economy pack and the family pack, customers will learn that the family pack will save them more money in the long run.
5. The student senate voted Thursday to conduct a poll to determine the status of living conditions in the dormitories.
6. Clarendon Park residents will march Saturday to protest the city council's decision to annex the neighborhood over residents' objections.
7. If the school maintains the lines of communications and makes the alumni feel as if they are still a part of the school even though they have already graduated, the school should have no problem reaching its fund-raising goal.
8. The residents of the neighborhood said they would petition the city council to reconsider again the decision to allow beer sales before 11 a.m. on Sunday morning, which would be against the wishes of many church-going citizens.
9. Fifteen scholarship winners, who were chosen because of their high academic achievement, will be given $15,000 in scholarship money to use at the college of the choice after they graduate from high school.
10. Child-care experts disagree over whether or not children should be spanked as part of a parent's disciplinary techniques or whether or not putting children in a time-out away from activities is punishment enough.