

FYE 101 – First Year Experience
Reflection Paper 5
Due: Friday, November 12th

Give your thoughts on the following questions:

1. Which relationships in your life are the most important to you right now? What are you doing to actively maintain and/or to develop these relationships?
2. How do you feel about your relationships and your support network at the moment? Do you have as many friends and relationships as you want or are there areas that are lacking?
3. What are you currently doing to build and cultivate new relationships? What are a few things that you could start doing in the near future to make progress in this area?
4. Is there difficulty or conflict in any of your important relationships at the moment? What could you do to work toward resolving conflict and/or improving that relationship?

Your paper should be typed and should be about 1 page in length (double spaced with standard margins). Make sure to put a title block including your name, course number, section number, and “Reflection Paper 4” at the top of the page. Your paper must be turned in to me no later than 4:00pm on Friday.

Note: Some of the questions in this paper are personal and sensitive in nature. If there are questions that you would rather not share your answers to, you do not have to. However, I strongly encourage you to answer all of these questions for yourself whether you turn them in or not.
