MINNESOTA STATE UNIVERSITY
MOORHEAD®

NOTE: The college/university is asking you to provide information that includes private and/or confidential information under state and federal law. The college/university is asking for this information in order to process your application. You are not legally required to provide the information the college/university is requesting; however, the college/university may not be able to effectively process your application if you do not provide sufficient information. With some exceptions, unless you consent to further release of private information, access to this information will be limited to school officials, including faculty who have legitimate educational interests in the information. Under certain circumstances, federal and state laws authorize release of private information without your consent:

- ▶ to other schools in which you seek or intend to enroll, or are enrolled, if you are first notified of the release;
- ▶ to federal, state or local officials for purposes of program compliance, audit or evaluation;
- ▶ to your parents, if your parents claim you as a dependent student for tax purposes;
- ▶ if information is sought with a subpoena, court order, or otherwise permitted by other state or federal law, and
- ▶ as appropriate in connection with your application for, or receipt of, financial aid;
- ▶ to an organization engaged in educational research or accrediting agency.

Minnesota State Colleges and Universities abide by the provisions of Title IX and other federal and state laws forbidding discrimination on the basis of sex, race, color, national origin or handicap and all other state and federal laws regarding equal opportunity. If you have been arrested, charged or convicted of any criminal offense, you should investigate the impact that the arrest, charge or conviction may have on your chances of employment in the field you intend to study or on your chances to obtain federal, state, and other higher education financial aid.

Minnesota State University Moorhead is an equal opportunity educator and employer and is a member of the Minnesota State system.
