Pollock, David & Ruth E. Van Reken. Third Culture Kids: The Experience of Growing Up Among Worlds. Nicholas Brealey Publishing, 1999

Professor Benson chose this book because:

I am a Third Culture Kid and have been doing research on what it means to be one for almost ten years. This book is the best overview for people to understand this group of people. Our new president, Barack Obama is also a Third Culture Kid. In addition, one of the co-authors, Ruth Van Reken, has become a friend and adviser to me as I have continued doing my research.
