

MSUM Library

honors the 2008 tenure and promotion of

Chris Walla

Art & Design

Heartney, Eleanor. Art & Today. Phaidon Press, Inc., 2008

Associate Professor Walla chose this book because:

I chose this selection to add to the resources available to students that illustrate the diversity and complexity that exists among today's contemporary art and artists. It is important to acknowledge divergent points of view and approaches in making art. Being challenged by aesthetics, politics, and an agenda that differs from one's own is what continues to inspire me as an artist and an educator.
