Counseling Services Guidelines

- MSUM does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, creed, religion, age, national origin, disability, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, or sexual orientation.
- All counseling sessions are confidential. However, counselors are mandated by law to report a client who presents a danger to himself/herself or to another, or situations indicating physical or sexual abuse of a minor or the elderly.
- Sessions are video recorded and observed for supervisory purposes. Clients remain anonymous to ensure confidentiality and privacy.
- Services are provided to those who are uninsured, underinsured, or have no mental health insurance coverage.
- Counselors-in-training meet with clients during the semester for 50 minutes each week.
