

Basic Resources for Writing

Minnesota State University Moorhead Nursing Department Writing Resources

Please note that these resources provide a wealth of information. In a land-based course, these things would be covered in textbooks, lectures and handouts. They are provided here with permission by Dr. Coghill (2000©), MSUM English Department. In distance education (DE), communication is predominantly text based-what you see on the screen tells you a lot about the author. Writing and being able to express yourself is paramount in DE.
