

Volunteering

Why Volunteer?

Make a Difference - Volunteering gives you an opportunity to make a difference in people's lives in your community. You can use your skills and experience to help and enrich the local community.

Improve Job Prospects – Volunteering proves to your future employer that you have developed necessary skills & are a committed person. This is especially useful for application forms and job interviews.

Fun – Volunteering is a fun and fulfilling experience which allows you to have opportunities not usually available to you.

Experience - Volunteering gives you a chance to get experience in a field you'd like to work in.

Training – Many of the volunteer projects will include training, which will be useful both on the project and in later life.

Experience Diversity – Volunteering gives you the chance to meet people both from within and outside the university who you would not normally come across.

Influence Career Choice – Volunteering gives you the opportunity to test out potential career choices.

Questions to Ask Yourself Before You Volunteer

- How much time can I give?
- Do I want to work directly with people or behind the scenes?
- Do I want to work by myself or with a group?
- What do I enjoy doing most?
- What special skills can I offer?
- Do I want to learn a new skill or provide experience to the organization?
- What issues or causes are important to you?
