

9th Annual Red River Women's Studies Conference
6 November 2009
Comstock Memorial Union
Minnesota State University Moorhead

Preliminary Conference Schedule

All Day Exhibits

8:30 to 9:30 Registration (Refreshments)

9:30 to 10:45 Concurrent Sessions

Session 1: The Barbie Modification Project Workshop Room 203

Breaking Standards of Femininity and Female Beauty: The Barbie Modification Project

Jennifer S. Kramer, College of St. Ben's
Terri L. Russ, Saint Mary's College

Session 2: Trans Feminism Roundtable Room 208

Trans Feminism: Feminism and the Transgender Community

Raymond Rea, MSUM; TBA

11:00 to 12:15 Concurrent Sessions

Session 3: Student Activism Panel Presentation Room 203

Women's Initiative for Learning and Leadership (WILL)

Tina Streiff, Winona State University
Kristina Parthum, Winona State
Eileen Moeller, Winona State
Rachel Schromen, Winona State

Session 4: Social Influences of Gender Paper Session Room 207

"Gender Roles as Predictors of Dimensions of Aggression Proneness in College Students"
Heather K. Terrell, UND (Julie L. Nagoshi and Craig T. Nagoshi, co-authors)

“A Preliminary Investigation of Gender Interaction Effects on Salary”
Rhonda Magel, North Dakota State University (Li Cao and Curt Doetkott, co-authors)

“Understanding Women’s Success in the Mathematics Classroom” – Christina D. Weber,
North Dakota State University; Angela Hodge, NDSU

Session 5:            Listening Across Differences            Roundtable            Room 208

Claudia Murphy, MSUM; TBA

Session 6:            Native American Issues            Panel Presentation Room 227

Native American Issues – Domestic Violence and Suicide: Suggestions for a Better Future

Wendelin Hume, University of North Dakota
Sarah Reep, UND Community Partner
Emily Reep, UND Community Partner

12:15 to 1:30      Keynote Speaker and Luncheon Ballroom B

Dr. Cynthia Norton
Professor of Biology and Women’s Studies
Center for Women, Science and Technology
St. Catherine University

*Intersections of Science and Gender:
Possibilities for Collaboration and Transformation*

1:30 to 2:45      Concurrent Sessions

Session 7:            Women and STEM Disciplines            Roundtable            Room 203

Women in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics

Cynthia Norton, St. Catherine University
Michelle Malott, MSUM
Claudia Murphy, MSUM
Ellen Brisch, MSUM

Session 8:            Feminism and the Body            Panel Presentation            Room 208

The Cult of Thinness

Jovae Priebe
Jennifer Freihammer
Jayme Campbell
Allison Goldade
Jenna Reid
Martha Laurenz-Johnson
Njeri Clement
Senia Hiltunen

St Cloud State University

Session 9:    Historical Perspectives on Gender and Sexuality            Paper Session
                 Room 207

“Ravishment and the Lesbian Gaze in Medieval Dream Visions”
Michelle Sauer, University of North Dakota

“The Female Body and Medieval Pilgrimage: Margery Kempe’s Journeys to the Holy Land”
Michelle R. Willman, University of North Dakota

“Speaking from the Margins: The Infanticide Trial of Alice Clifton”
Gary Zaugg, North Dakota State University

Session 10:        Gendered Images in Contemporary Culture            Paper Session
                 Room 227

“My Baby Gives It Away: Images of Female Sex Workers in Film and the Unverifiable”
Raymond Rea, Minnesota State University Moorhead

“Jenna Jameson: An American Mythical Heroine”
Amanda Bakley, Minnesota State University Mankato

“Captain Kathryn Janeway: Feminist or Flook?”
Kimberlee Johnson, University of North Dakota

