

Minnesota State University Moorhead
Women's Studies Program
Application Form for Student Representative, 2010 - 2011

Student Representatives on the Women's Studies Committee serve as full members of the committee and provide a student voice in the administration of the WS program, including its academic policies, student relations, activities and events. Duties for the Student Representative include attending monthly meetings, serving as a student liaison, promoting and assisting with Women's Studies events. Representatives may also be asked to serve on the Women's Center Advisory Committee, the Dean's Student Advisory Board, or other outside committees. Student representatives serve for 1 year terms, renewable for a second year based on record of service to the committee.

Please type or print legibly. Thank you.
