This project is about Euclid's Algorithm. The algorithm is used to find the greatest common divisor of two positive integers that is more efficient than finding the prime factorizations. It is described in section 3.6 on pages 227-229.

(a) Do #24 in section 3.6.

(b) Do #26 in section 3.6.